Panarea

COLLECTION

Once in Sicily, how not to stop in Panarea, the smallest and oldest volcanic island in the Aeolian archipelago: a small paradise, where you walk around the alleys, surrounded by typical houses and pretty gardens, with slowly changing cliffs and seas. The collection interprets the atmosphere and nuances of these places, the white line of the walls of the houses, the turquoise of the sea, the warmth of the Mediterranean sun and the clear air. Made in Italy by Architect Patrizia Trippano.
